

Organizational Changes in Vitro's Managing Team

San Pedro Garza García, Nuevo León, México, June 26, 2009 – Vitro S.A.B. de C.V. (BMV: VITROA; NYSE: VTO), announced today the following organizational changes in its managing team:

David González, has been appointed as Flat Glass President in order to replace Roberto Rubio, who has decided to join the senior executive team of Libbey Inc., as Vice President, Managing Director of Libbey México starting July 1, 2009. Vitro and Libbey Inc. had a joint venture through VitroCrisa which ended in 2006.

David González Morales joined the Company in 1980 and has been in charge of several executive positions, being responsible as President of Glass Containers since 2007.

During the Company's restructuring process, Glass Containers will be in charge of Alfonso Gómez Palacio who was the head of this business unit when he decided to retire in 2007.

“On behalf of Vitro I wish to thank Roberto for his performance as President of Flat Glass, and I wish him the best of success in this new stage of his career. I would like to also thank Alfonso for interrupting his retirement and coming back to lead Glass Containers during the process we are currently facing. This will allow us to add his vast experience and avoid making major changes in the rest of the Company, taking in consideration the current team's valuable skills in maintaining the highest performance standards in our operations”, said Hugo Lara, CEO of Vitro.

He added, “The appointment of David González will allow us to deepen our float glass transformation and fabrication strategy alignment, in which David has a significant know-how, a key element of this business future”.
